

MANY CULTURES: One Church at Prayer

48th ANNUAL SOUTHWEST LITURGICAL CONFERENCE STUDY WEEK

January 13-16, 2009

George R. Brown Convention Center
Houston, Texas

*Hosted by the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston
Sponsored by the Southwest Liturgical Conference – Region X*

GENERAL SESSION SPEAKERS

•
Daniel Cardinal DiNardo
Archbishop of Galveston-Houston

•
Dr. Richard McCarron
*Associate Professor of Liturgy,
Catholic Theological Union*

•
Brother Rufino Zaragoza, OFM
Liturgical Music Consultant, Diocese of Oakland

•
Reverend Ed Foley, OFM Cap
*Professor of Liturgy and Music,
Catholic Theological Union*

•
Catherine Vincie, R.S.H.M.
*Associate Director of Sacramental and Liturgical Theology,
Aquinas Institute of Theology*

•
Reverend Juan Sosa
*President, Institutio Nacional Hispano de Liturgia and
Consultant for the United States
Conference of Catholic Bishops*

From the beginning, we have been a church blessed and challenged by diversity with the many influences of language and culture woven into the fabric of our communal life.

This conference will explore:

- The impact of culture on the evolution of the church at prayer in the United States
- Practical implications of culture in the liturgical prayer of the church in the United States
- How religious culture is transmitted through the spoken, sung and visual languages of the liturgy
- Eucharist: Making us one Church at prayer

- General Session and workshops presented in both English and Spanish on Saturday
- Conference registration: $150 [$130 for early registration]. Both include one banquet ticket.
- Single Day $60
- Hilton Americas Room Rate: $139 per night, multiple occupancy available

WWW.SWLC.ORG